

Maninder Kohli
Director and Founder, Juniper Outdoor Pursuits Centre Pvt. Ltd

Maninder Kohli was drawn to the mountains at an early age inspired by his father, Captain M. S. Kohli who led India's first successful expedition to Mt. Everest in 1965. Maninder's favourite adventure sport is trekking and he has participated in over 65 treks in the Himalaya with the intent being to look out for exploratory treks or areas less frequented. Maninder has previously worked with Citibank for 20 years where as Senior Vice-President he officiated on the Managing Committee of the Consumer Bank. In 2010, he founded Juniper Outdoor Pursuits Centre based in New Delhi, through which he motivates people into the world of adventure. Maninder volunteers with multiple organisations, which include the Himalayan Environment Trust where he is Managing Trustee, the Indian Mountaineering Foundation where he officiates as Director of the IMF Mountain Film Festival, and the Himalayan Club where he is Honorary Local Secretary for New Delhi.
