

Michael Lindenmayer
The Tata Trusts, Global Partnerships

Michael TS Lindenmayer is part of the partnership leadership team at the Tata Trusts, India's oldest and largest charitable trust. Michael builds partnerships between the Tata Trusts and leading organisations in Europe and the US. The Tata Trusts is committed to uplifting over 40 million Indians and empowering sustained growth and impact throughout India.

Michael is a thought leader in philanthropy. He is the co-author of Charity and Philanthropy for Dummies book. He is on faculty at Northwestern University where he teaches classes to executives on effective philanthropy and impact finance.

Michael is also a veteran in the wellness, hospitality and tourism industry. He has been a founder, owner, manager and advisor on properties and projects in the US, South America, Central America, Northern Africa, Europe and South Asia. Michael also helped lead cultural projects and initiatives at the Chicago Field Museum, Chicago Museum of Science and Industry and was instrumental in the formation of the University of Utah's Dark Skies Institute.

He is committed to helping develop, design and innovative next generation wellness platforms. He co-authored Art's Principles, with Arthur Gensler, the founder of the world's largest architect and design firm.

Michael collaborates with thought leaders and has appointments at the Stanford School of Medicine and the South Asia Institute at Harvard.

Michael splits his time between the US, UK and India.

Email Disclaimer: "This communication (including any accompanying documents / attachments) is intended only for the use of the addressee(s) and contains information that is PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL. If you are not the intended recipient, you are notified that any dissemination and/or copying of this e-mail is strictly prohibited and you are requested to delete this e-mail immediately. Communicating through e-mail is not secure and capable of interception & delays. Any one communicating with the Tata Trusts by e-mail accepts the risks involved and their consequences. Thank you for your co-operation."