

Gabriella Cresini
Head Entrepreneurship & Innovation at Swisscontact

Since 2010, Gabriella Cresini has been working at positioning Swisscontact's expertise in the public and private sector within Switzerland and internationally, and has developed topical leadership in various sectors. In value chain development, entrepreneurship, financial services, and tourism she consolidates the development approaches implemented worldwide and drives forward the exchange of best practices and experiences with practitioners, academia and international experts. Her previous management board positions have been with Planplus and the Switzerland Training Centre for Marketing, Advertising and Communication (SAWI). Gabriella represents Swisscontact in the steering committee of the Swiss Capacity Building Facility (SCBF), in the consultative Boards of the International Cocoa Organization (ICCO) and the World Tourism Forum (WTF).
